MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Senior Interdepartmental Group Recommendation

on Gulf of Sidra Exercise

In response to your memorandum of June 21, 1982, the members of the Senior Interdepartmental Group (SIG) on Libya have considered the options regarding a naval exercise in the Gulf of Sidra. It was the general consensus that it would not be in our interest to conduct the exercise in August in view of the current political situation in the Arab world.

State and Defense recommend that a missile exercise be tentatively planned for January 1983, subject to further review in the late November timeframe.
